wedded life is unhappy, despite the efforts of her husband, a widower, to devote himself to his bride. To escape the duliness of home and the bickering of her mother-in-law the girl seeks the company of younger men. Their attentions are only passing for they soon tire of her and for-sake her. The girl then awakens to the full the first the sets. sake her. The girl then awakens to the futility of her existence. She sets out to end her life but gets new courage and turns to face her husband and seek his forgiveness. But then the bank of the stream on which she was standing caves in and she is drowned in the rushing waters.

Edward Connelly, who has made a big hit with the Auditorium patrons, will appear in an entire change of programme today. His songs are It's a Long Way Back to Mother's Knee and I May Be Gone for a Long, Long Time.

Alken S. C., Oct. 11.—Paul Wierse editorial writer of the Charleston (S. C.) American and Captain Klattenhoff, of the German steamship Liebenfels, were convicted in federal court here today of conspiracy to sink the ship in Charleston harbor and sentenced to two years in federal prison at Atlanta and to pay a fine of $1,000 and costs each. The Liebenfels was sunk just before he diplomatic break with Germany, presumably on orders of the German government.

BREED THEATRE

Emmy Wehlen in Miss Robinson Crusoe, a Metro Wonderplay of Intrigue, Adventure and Romance, the Feature for Today and Saturday.

Today and Saturday the Breed will present the most bewitching star of the screen, Emmy Wehlen in the Metro wonderplay. Miss Robinson Crusoe. This production is adapted from the story by June Mathis and was directed by William Christy Cabanne. Its appeal is universal. The production is noted for its beautiful scenic effects. The picture was taken at the Thousand Islands, the best known summer resort of northern New York and shows the magnificent estate of George C. Boldt, the pro-prietor of the famous Waldorf-Astoria in New York. Miss Wehlen has the ability to portray every emotion and has a part that fits her lie a glove. The Hearst-Pathe Weekly will be shown and a funny Big V. comedy will complete the bill.

C. WITTER Auctioneer Office and Auction Room, Evans Block, Danielson, Conn. 40 HEAD OF AYRSHIRE CATTLE

PUBLIC SALE

TUESDAY, OCT. 23, 1917, at 10 o'clock a. m.

I take great pleasure in announcing to the public that I shall sell on the above stated date 40 head of Registered Ayrshire Cattle for Mr. John A. Baton of Wauregan, Conn.

These will be as good a collection of individuals of the breed as were ever offered either at public or private sale. They represent the desired markings, size, good teats and production. The cows are typical of Mr. Baton's care as a breeder, and the helfers are equally as well marked. Their dates of freshening are near by; a few as carly as the date of the sale, and the balance in the early future. The ages fun from yearlings to matured cows. FARMING TOOLS AND IMPLEMENTS. FARMING TOOLS AND IMPLEMENTS

OWNER'S STATEMENT.

I am desiroris of saying a few words to the public in regard to the above personal property, and that is that I have sold my farm, am retiring from the farming business, and that this saie will be conducted in a clean, orderly manner and every article positively sold. Everybody welcome from far and near. The farm is located near the public school at the four corners in Wauregan, Conn., five minutes' walk from the Norwich and Worcester steam roud depot and an equal distance from the trolley line passing from Danielson to Norwich.

JOHN A. BATON.

Terms made known at date of sale. A lunch will be served. Don't forget the date. Rain or shine. Plenty of room under cover. OWNER'S, STATEMENT.

Brother Jonathan In His Gayest Mood

For Freedom's battle once begun Bequeathed by bleeding sire to son, Though baffled oft, is ever won.

Young Jonathan, our Jonathan, some centuries agone Set out to win a freeman's heritage for you and me, Did he fail or carry on? Why, of course, he carried on! There's a place in fair New England where his conscience and his sword Were one day dedicated to the service of the Lord. We call upon the nations of the world to record

That the good work still goes on! Why, of course, it still goes on! For the glory of his heritage, the honor of his name, Young Jonathan our Jonathan across the sea has gone.

The cause is still the selfsame cause the blood is still the same!

Why, of course, he'll carry on! There's a place in far-off Europe where the morning dew lies red On blighted fields that yet shall bloom when tyranny has fied, For Freedom's harvest yet shall crown the labors of the dead

That the Boys still carry on-That, of course, they carry on! Oh, Jonathan, our Jonathan! say, could you ever guess The pride that thrills us through and through—the pride A nation's love encircles you, a nation's blessings bless,

As you bravely carry on—
As you proudly carry on!

Milngave, Scotland. LET THE FLAG WAVE

These stanzas give the title to Mr. Scollard's new book of poems entitled, "Let the Flag Wave," published by James T. White & Co., New York Let the flag wave! Aye, let it wave on high, Its red and white and blue against the sky!

From crest and casement, broad and bright and brave,

The hills and valleys of the land we love, And o'er the sea, to no mad tyrant slave, Let the flag wave! Let the flag wave! Aye, let its glory shine! Let the flag wave, a symbol, and a sign!

Let the flag wave! Let the flag wave! Aye, let it wave above

To guard our honor and to shield and save, Let the flag wave! Let the flag wave! Aye, wave in all men's sight. Its stars unsullied as the stars of night; Its stripes unblemished; only this we crave-

Let the flag wave!

HUMOR OF THE DAY

"Haven't you heard anything from that set of harness that was stolen from your stable last night?"
"Nope—not even a trace."—Florida
Times-Union.

The pope has appointed Monsignor Henry Gray Graham titular bishop of Tipaza, and instructed him to act as suffrangan bishop to Monsignor James Smith, the archibshop of St. Andrew's and Ediphyrigh.

Will he fail or carry on?

Said He-Why do women, as a rule, and Edinburgh, talk more than men do?
Said She—Oh, I suppose it's because they have the men to talk about.—Inthey have they met Euro-Dector—Your throat is in a very bad state. Have you ever tried gargling with salt water?

Skipper—Yes, I've been torpedoed six times.—Punch. Professor—You have a promising contralto voice.

Miss Newrich—But, professor. I'd rather sing soprano; it's much highertoned.—St. Louis Times.

Miss Newrich—But, professor. I'd rather sing soprano; it's much highertoned.—St. Louis Times. You feel, when things ain't goin' right An' all the world's a-flurry, It's better to get out an' fight Than stay at home an' worry. —Kansas City Journal.

Mr. Dumpsey (who catches Johnny among his mother's fresh tarts)—Look here, Johnny! What are you up to? Johnny (indistinctly)—Up to the ninth, pa, but they're awfully small.—Pearson's Weekly.

"How does your son like army life?"
"Not very well. He says he doesn't mind marching when the band is playing, but finds it mightly hard to get up any enthusiasm over chopping wood or peeling potatoes without musical accompaniment."—Detroit Free Press.
